The population of the East Coast Area Health Board is approximately 333,459. The geographical spread of the East Coast Area Health Board ranges from just South of Ringsend in the North to Carnew in the South, and from the East Coast of Wicklow over to the borders of West Wicklow and Carnew.

The Board delivers a full range of health and health related social services within this functional area either directly or in partnership with other statutory and non-statutory service providers in the area. It receives funding for this purpose from the Eastern Regional Health Authority (ERHA) in accordance with the 1999 legislation.

Our Customer Services Department

Our Customer Services public office and telephone centre is based in Dr. Steevens' Hospital, Dublin 8. This office deals with requests for information and advice on health services in the region. Application forms and guidelines to all health services are also available. The office is open from 9am to 5pm including lunchtime, Monday to Friday. An answer phone service operates outside of these hours
