Abstract of Rules

All Elections shall be by the General Council. Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland and of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland may be admitted without formal proposal on payment of the entrance fee and the subscription for the current year. All others, being registered medical practitioners, or those interested in the science of medicine shall be proposed by two Fellows before election.

Any registered Medical Practitioner may be elected a Member, the election to be conducted in the same manner as that of Fellows.

Registered Medical Practitioners temporarily resident in Dublin, may be elected as Associates.

Registered Medical Students may be elected as Student Associates.

Annual Subscriptions—Fellows shall pay £3. 3s. Od. and Members £2. 2s. 0d. Associates and Student Associates shall pay five shillings. Fellows and Members not residing within 15 miles of Dublin shall pay £1. 11s. 0d. Subscriptions shall become due on the first day of October in each year. A Fellow or Member whose subscription is more than one year in arrear shall cease to belong to the Academy unless the delay shall be accounted for to the satisfaction of the General Council.

An entrance fee of £1. 1s. 0d. is charged to Fellows.

Visitors must be personally introduced by a Fellow or Member.

The Ordinary Meetings will be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings, from October until June, with special exceptions.

CHARLES DICKSON, M.D.,
General Secretary and Treasurer,
6 Kildare Street, Dublin 2.
REPORT OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL
Session 1968-'69

The General Council announces that the number of Fellows is now 785, a net increase of 34 during the year. This number represents those whose subscriptions have been paid. Ten years ago the number of Fellows was 540.

The number of Members is 49 and the number of Honorary Fellows is 9.

The Graves Lecture under the auspices of the Academy and the Medical Research Council of Ireland was delivered on April 18th, 1969. The lecturer was Dr. Ian Temperley of the Dept. of Haematology, Trinity College, Dublin and his subject was Haemopoietic Factors associated with Megaloblastic Anaemia.

The attendance numbered 110.

At a special General Meeting on Friday, September 26th, 1969, Professor John Higginson, Director of the International Agency for Research on Cancer, was admitted by the President to the Honorary Fellowship of the Academy.

The General Council again record their appreciation of the services of Professor Frank Kane and Dr. Douglas Mellon as honorary auditors.

Details of attendances at Section Meetings are summarised as follows:—

Abstract of Rules

All elections shall be by the General Council. Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland and of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland may be admitted without formal proposal on payment of the entrance fee and the subscription for the current year. All others, being registered medical practitioners, or those interested in the science of medicine shall be proposed by two Fellows before election.

Any registered Medical Practitioner may be elected a Member, the election to be conducted in the same manner as that of Fellows.

Registered Medical Practitioners temporarily resident in Dublin, may be elected as Associates.

Registered Medical Students may be elected as Student Associates.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS—Fellows shall pay £3 3s. 0d. and Members £2 2s. 0d. Associates and Student Associates shall pay five shillings. Fellows and Members not residing within 15 miles of Dublin shall pay £1 11s. 6d. Subscriptions shall become due on the first day of October in each year. A Fellow or Member whose subscription is more than one year in arrear shall cease to belong to the Academy unless the delay shall be accounted for to the satisfaction of the General Council.

Subscriptions are subject to alteration as from 1st October 1970.

An entrance fee of £1 1s. 0d. is charged to Fellows.

Visitors must be personally introduced by a Fellow or Member.

The ORDINARY MEETINGS will be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings, from October until June, with special exceptions.
